

With a view to afford relief to inmates of homes for the elders in Sri Lanka the United Nations Friends Organisation (SUNFO) established an elders service unit at Moratuwa home for the elders, which is maintained by the Janadhara Society of Moratuwa. Here, Minister of Industrial Development C. V. Goonaratne who participated on this occasion as the chief guest, awarding a gift to one of the inmates of home for elders at Moratuwa. Ms. Adrin Tulin, General Secretary of the Amnesty International, Deshapriya S. W. Tunge, Director General, SUNFO, Brother Baptist Croos, President of the SUNFO, Sri Lanka Representative of United Nations Population Fund and Mrs. Janaki Amaratunga, Directress of this Organisation were present.