

United Nations World Environmental Day SUNFO Marathon was flagged off by the Minister of Sports and Youth Affairs Jeewan Kumaratunge at the Beach Road, Mount Lavinia. Director General of SUNFO Peace Ambassador Dr. Deshapriya S. Wijetunge, Sports Advisor Rizvy Rawof and SUNFO Director Priyath Abeynayake are also in the picture.

Wijesinghe and Chandrakanthi win SUNFO marathon

A marathon was held from Mount Lavinia to Galle Face last Sunday as part of United Nations Environment Day. This was organised by Sri Lanka United Nations Friendship Organisation.

The event was run under four categories Boys U-18, Girls U-18, Men and women. Youth Affairs and Sports Minister Jeevan Kumaratunga who was the chief guest flagged off the race. Dr. Deshapriya S. Wijetunga, Director General of Sri Lanka United Nations Friendship Organisation (SUNFO) was the guest of honour.

Winners were awarded Trophies and cash awards, while the other competitors who finished the event within the stipulated time of 90 minutes were awarded certificates of participation.

Under 18 Boys

1. P. Nishantha Kumara, 2. Amila Madushanka, 3. Dinesh Jayarathne, 4. Anushka Sameera, 5. Suneth Mihiran Fernando.

Under 18 Girls

1. Nadeesha Kumari, 2. Indra Damayanthi, 3. Nadeesha Mihirani, 4. Hanshani Pramodini, 5. C. Anuruddhika.

Men

1. M. Navarane Wijesinghe, 2. Roshan De Mel, 3. Chamal Wasantha, 4. K. Pushpakumara, 5. M. Sri Manna.

Women

1. Mallika Chandrakanthi, 2. Amali Menaka, 3. Manjula Kumarasinghe, 4. B. U. L. Anuradhi, 5. Miss. Ishara De Mel.